

What happens when I report a scam?

Reporting a scam gives you access to specialist advice and can help other people stay safe. You can report a scam whether or not you have been caught by it.

Reports build a dashboard of information which helps to track trends in scams. This tracking is used to create effective public awareness warnings. It helps enforcers and educators decide the best way to use their resources.

